

ATTENTION

THIS PACKET IS NOT A SUBSTITUTE FOR THE ADVICE OF AN ATTORNEY

IMPORTANT

If either party is in the military, special rules may apply and it is recommended you seek the advice of an attorney.

Counsel is Always Recommended for Legal Matters

The law allows any person to represent himself/herself in a legal action. However, filing papers with the court and representing yourself in the courtroom can involve complicated legal issues. This packet does not address all the legal issues involved in bringing your matter before the court. This packet is created to help you access the legal system without the assistance of an attorney.

When representing yourself, you are responsible for understanding the law that governs your case and for filing the proper legal documents. The laws and rules are set out in the Nevada Revised Statutes, The Rule of Civil Procedure, and the local rules governing the jurisdiction in which you are filing your documents.

When you sign these documents and present them for filing with the court, it is assumed by the court that you have carefully read the documents, that you understand all the terms in the documents, that you agree with all the provisions in the documents, and that you are aware of all the consequences those provisions may produce.

Before filling in any portion of the following documents, read all the materials included in this packet!

THIS INFORMATION IS PROVIDED AS A COURTESY ONLY! THE COURT, SELF-HELP CENTER, NON-PROFIT ORGANIZATION, OR LAW LIBRARY THAT MAY PROVIDE THIS INFORMATION SHALL NOT BE LIABLE FOR ERRORS CONTAINED HERIN OR FOR DIRECT, INDIRECT, SPECIAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES IN CONNECTION WITH THE FURNISHING OF THIS MATERIAL.

You may follow up with the Court regarding the progress of your case by calling the County Clerk's Office at (775) 293-2341.

Common Misconceptions About A Name Change

When an order is issued changing a name, it does not automatically change your name on your Birth Certificate. You must contact the Bureau of Vital Statistics in the State in which your Birth Certificate was issued to find out what they need to modify your Birth Certificate. Usually they will require a certified copy of the Order Changing Name.

It is possible that your original name will not be removed from your birth certificate. The certificate may still show you original name with "formally known as" written on the certificate with your new name typed above your old name.

Even with the Order, the Bureau of Vital Statistics will not automatically issue a new Birth Certificate. It is up to you to find out what the Bureau of Vital Statistics in the State in which your certificate was issued needs in order to re-issue a Birth Certificate.
