MOTION

(Your name) _____, (the "Moving Party"), in Proper Person, moves this Court for an Order granting permission to relocate to another state with a minor child.

POINTS AND AUTHORITIES LEGAL ARGUMENT

A parent must obtain court permission or the other parent's written consent before relocating with a child outside of Nevada or to a place within Nevada that would substantially impair the other parent's ability to maintain a meaningful relationship with the child.

When a parent with joint physical custody of a child wishes to relocate with the child, the parent must also petition for primary physical custody for the purposes of relocating. NRS 125C.006; 125C0065. Pursuant to NRS 125C.0035(4), in determining the best interest of the child, the court must consider and set forth its specific findings concerning, among other things:

- (a) The wishes of the child if the child is of sufficient age and capacity to form an intelligent preference as to his or her physical custody.
- (b) Any nomination of a guardian for the child by a parent.
- (c) Which parent is more likely to allow the child to have frequent associations and a continuing relationship with the noncustodial parent.
- (d) The level of conflict between the parents.
- (e) The ability of the parents to cooperate to meet the needs of the child.
- (f) The mental and physical health of the parents.
- (g) The physical, developmental and emotional needs of the child.
- (h) The nature of the relationship of the child with each parent.
- (i) The ability of the child to maintain a relationship with any sibling.
- (j) Any history of parental abuse or neglect of the child or a sibling of the child.
- (k) Whether either parent or any other person seeking physical custody has engaged in an act of domestic violence against the child, a parent of the child or any other person residing with the child.
- (l) Whether either parent or any other person seeking physical custody has committed any act of abduction against the child or any other child.

1 Whether or not the relocating parent has joint physical custody or primary physical
2 custody, the relocating parent must prove to the court that the parent has a sensible, good-faith
3 reason for the move that is not intended to deprive the other parent of his or her parenting time.
4 The relocating parent must also prove that the move would be in the best interest of the child, and
5 that the child and parent would both benefit from an actual advantage if allowed to move.

6 In considering the parent's request to relocate, the Court must weigh various factors,
7 including: 1) the motives of the relocating parent; 2) the motives of the non-relocating parent; 3)
8 the extent to which the relocation would improve the quality of life for the child and parent; 4)
9 whether the relocating parent will comply with substitute visitation orders; 5) whether there is a
10 realistic alternate visitation schedule that will adequately foster and preserve the relationship
11 between the child and the non-relocating parent; and 6) any other factor. NRS 125C.007.
